

COMPANY INFORMATION

We are a live event agency - a seamless journey through creative design and flawless execution. We care about what you care about. We begin by listening, understanding your culture, goals and communication style; then we apply our years of experience telling your story in a memorable way. We build world-class platforms. Our name communicates our goal - to produce for you a perfectly streamlined event.

COLLABORATIVE DESIGN & DIRECTION

We believe in listening first, then we do our homework. We interpret your vision and create an experience that gives your message a strong voice. We know how to fill the room with excitement about the story you are telling.

FOCUSED CREATIVITY

We chose the word AGENCY intentionally. We apply creative services beyond a typical production group. We believe collaborative creativity is focused, singular, and on your message. We produce moments which connect, inspire, motivate and impact.

PROVEN RESULTS

Streamline Event Agency has a trusted track record with our client base. Like you, we are selective in our partnerships. We believe in relational work; to clearly understand collective goals and build long-term trust.

Growing together:

It started with a relationship, and a request to develop a long-term vision. Our client needed to reclaim their stake as a significant stakeholder in the Cincinnati business community. After listening, asking SPECIFIC questions, doing our research, and gaining an understanding of their culture, it was clear that a high-end memorable experience would propel their foundation forward. A seated dinner for 550, Grammy award winning entertainment provided by Amy Grant, and creative messaging from registration and table décor to stage designs resulted in the most successful event in the client's history.

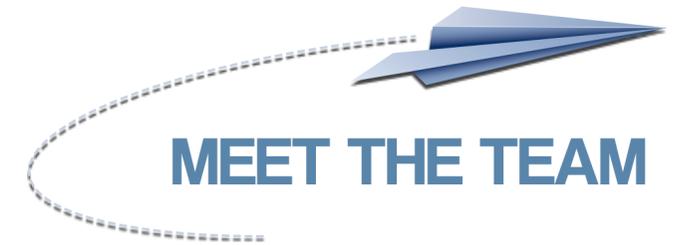

This successful event GREW to more opportunities in the fall of 2015. We carried the momentum of year one to a high-end house party in Cincinnati, OH, which capped a capital campaign for a much needed new facility. We listened and created three distinct messages and one unique story to be told that evening. After raising $3 Million in the fall of 2015 we turned our sights to 2016.

In September of 2016, we will produce their second annual event and gala. This event has grown to 1200 seats, a VIP after party event, and world class keynotes by Martin Sheen and musical entertainment with Jennifer Nettles. Over the last two years we have walked a path of extraordinary growth; we can't wait to see what 2017 holds.

We grow when you grow. Gaining your trust is priority number one in a new relationship. Exceeding your expectations and goals is our expectation. Do you want to grow with us? Streamline Event Agency wants to write our next case study about you.

We win when you win.

OUR CLIENTS

Our clients are our reflection. We believe in finding the right relationship - not one size fits all. We collaborate together to bring the best out in each other and showcase what great relationships can accomplish. Perhaps that is defined by quadrupling an event from year one to year two or utilizing a more methodical growth over a multi-year period. They trust us. We are the curator of unique client relationships and our clients create a larger picture of collaboration in motion with true success.
